Pauline Di Benedetto of Attleboro Massachusetts has won several awards and a few trophies for her poetry. She says that she received her gift of writing at a very young age. Her words began to rhyme while saying her prayers. That was when she knew that writing was her purpose in life. "Love is the Greatest Gift of All" is a collection of all the poems she has written throughout the years with the hope of having most of them put to music. These are the songs of her heart, hoping they will touch yours as well. Pauline has written two other books which are available on Amazon and can be ordered in any brick and mortar stores. Her first book is called "Faith Through the Eyes of a Child". In this book, she shares her childhood memories of her relationship with God. She says that the purpose of this book is hopefully to inspire others to have the faith of a little child and to lead others to have their own relationship with God. No matter what religion or background they come from, in this book, she shares her childhood memories of her relationship with God and some hard challenges she had to face. Included in that book, she shared family photos and an inspired poem after each chapter quoting a passage from the Bible. "A Little Child Shall Lead Them". Pauline believes she has truly fulfilled this need by leading as a little child. Her second book, which was also published by us, is called "Keeping in Touch with the Other Side". This book, Pauline believes, is the one that was meant to be written all along. This was also the book that she hesitated to write, fearing that it would be too controversial and seem to give the impression that she would appear to be holier than thou. On the contrary, she feels the complete opposite. The message she would like to give is "We are all God's children".

children and we are all special in his eyes while writing this book she was forced spiritually to reveal some personal events that she would have wanted to keep to herself but as the quote says the truth shall set you free pauline believes that she did not write her books alone for she was guided by the divine spirit within mystical love in the german baroque theology poetry music identifies the cultural and devotional conventions underlying expressions of mystical love in poetry and music of the german baroque it sheds new light on the seemingly erotic overtones in settings of the song of songs and dialogues between christ and the faithful soul in late 17th and early 18th century cantatas by heinrich schütz dieterich buxtehude and johann sebastian bach while these compositions have been interpreted solely as a secularizing tendency within devotional music of the baroque period isabella van elferen demonstrates that they need to be viewed instead as intensifications of the sacred based on a wide selection of previously unedited or translated 17th and 18th century sources van elferen describes the history and development of baroque poetic and musical love discourses from schütz's early works through buxtehude's cantatas and bach's cantatas and passions this long and multilayered discursive history of these compositions considers the love poetry of petrarch european reception of petrarchan imagery and traditions its effect on the madrigal in germany and the role of catholic medieval mystics in baroque lutheranism van elferen shows that bach's compositional technique based on the emotional characteristics of text and music rather than on the depiction of single words allows the musical expression of mystical love to correspond closely to contemporary literary and theological conceptions of this affect doors to paradise poems for the soul is ajit sripad rao nalkurs fourth book of poetry and it follows his previously published trilogy on love his poems are an invitation for our souls to discover what lies behind each door we encounter in life the author experienced intense joy peace and freedom as he wrote these poemsemotions he hopes to share with all the poems in this collection are arranged in chronological order and written in various rhyming styles the poems were created as spontaneous outbursts of the soul and in the reading of them the author hopes that the readers heart will similarly open and receive the emotions they convey like doorways into the authors soul doors to paradise poems for the soul reflects the peace and contentment in his life now the muse forever poised on the brink of a poem patiently waiting for the muse to rise or fall from the skies the poets eye looks out onto the fields of paradise left vacant of her presence he looks for her in his heart and sees that she indeed is the one thing he needs and wants a window is flung open a door beckons the house of the soul welcomes him home
